

STUDENT MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Good morning everyone! Today is Thursday, April 25th, and it is a Day 4.
- Our forecast for today is cloudy with a high temperature of 63 degrees, and showers are expected this afternoon.

Please Stand for the Pledge of Allegiance: (Pause)

I Pledge Allegiance to the Flag, of the United States of America.
And to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God,
Indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for All.

Today's lunch choices are:

Three Bean and Meat Chili with a Twisted Breadstick, Greek Turkey Wrap, or a Cobb Salad

Here are today's announcements:

- Students going to Thaddeus Stevens on May 7th must turn in their permission slips tomorrow.
- This Sunday, April 28th, the Conrad Weiser Homestead will be holding a special "Making Sense of History" program. This event is free and all are welcome to enjoy this experience which begins at noon and ends at 4:00. Crafters and reenactors will share activities that you will be able to take part in. So be sure to visit the Homestead if you'd like to learn more about life in the Tulpehocken in the 1700's.
- Tomorrow is the final day to turn in your permission slips for our final incentive trip of the year to Lake Tobias. If any of you misplaced your permission slip, stop by the office to get another copy. The $9.50 trip fee is also due with your permission slip. You heard yesterday that we will be viewing exotic animals such as the African Lion, American Black Bear and Bengal Tiger, and we'll also be enjoying the park's petting zoo and reptile building! So... bring in your slips and payment tomorrow if you want to participate in this awesome trip!

And now, here is our "trustworthy" quote of the day: "Never separate the life you live from the words you speak."

Have a great day everyone!
