Indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for All.

Here are today's announcements:

- Our final community meeting of the year will be held today, immediately following announcements. Good luck to all students, as the student winner of the month, who best displayed the character trait, "Courage", will be announced.

And now, as we end the month of May, here is our final "courage" quote of the day: "Have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become."

Have a great day everyone!
