FFA Trivia Question of the Day:

What crop produces the most cash for American farmers?

One lucky winner will receive a $20 gift card. Students can submit their answer in the Ag Classroom by the end of the day.

The MiniThon and the Key Club are partnering up to do a dramatic fundraiser for Four Diamonds. This week only, we are seeking pairs of students who are willing to go "head to head" in a penny war. The coin jars will be set up at lunches every day next week. The winners will be announced at the Faculty Versus Seniors Basketball game. For each pair of students who participate, the student with the most money raised will get to shave the head of their losing partner at the end of the basketball game. If you are willing to risk a drastic haircut for an amazing cause, please see Mrs. Osman this week to get a permission slip. We'd love if students found their own partners and joined in the contest together, but we will pair people up as well if needed!
