The CW Esports Club will be doing a coin war at lunches. We plan to split the proceeds between our club and Laney's Legacy of Hope – a charity who helps local kids with cancer – and who is helping one of our esports students who is currently battling cancer. Mr. Zeitzer, Mr. Duong, and Mr. Rothenberger all have jars in this contest, and we have a couple other teachers participating as well. The “winner” of this contest will get a “condiment slurry” (ketchup, mustard, and mayo mixed with water) dumped on them at spring fling. Bring your money to lunch over the next 3 weeks!
